Should the number of interested applicants exceed the number allowed by the funder, an internal selection process will be conducted by the Office of the Vice Provost for Research, and candidates will be notified to submit internal application materials. All candidates will be notified of results. NB: Successful applications must include official notification from the Limited Submissions Team in order to submit. For more information, please see http://viceprovost.tufts.edu/resources/funding/limited-submissions/

PROGRAM PURPOSE:
• To advance transformational programs and projects that seek to achieve a measurable and substantial reduction of the prevalence of modern slavery in targeted populations in priority countries or jurisdictions through the development of an open and competitive process for awarding sub-awards to other organizations to implement specific projects to end modern slavery.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:
• Develop a clear strategy that leverages funding awarded under this funding opportunity to attract other donor resources to reduce the prevalence of modern slavery— sex trafficking and forced labor.
• Strategies should complement and build upon existing anti-trafficking efforts, develop sustainable local capacity of governments and civil society, and incorporate survivor perspectives.
• Strategies should include robust monitoring, evaluation, and reporting; and demonstrate a plan for contributing data, analysis, lessons learned, and promising practices to global efforts to combat modern slavery.
• Applicants shall not 1) directly implement projects funded under this funding opportunity, or 2) provide funding to any organization for with there is a conflict of interest or appearance of complicit of interest.

ELIGIBILITY: No agency restrictions; please follow Tufts PI eligibility policies

AWARD INFORMATION: $25,000,000; please note that while cost sharing is not required, it can be a part of the strategy for attracting and disseminating additional donor funding.
