PLEASE NOTE: TWO (2) PROPOSALS FROM TUFTS MAY BE NOMINATED

DEADLINES:
Tufts Internal Email of Intent Deadline: August 6 by noon
Sponsor Deadline: September 25

For those interested, please send an email of intent to the Limited Submissions Team at limitedsubmissions@tufts.edu informing us of an intention to apply. EOI’s received after the deadline will not be considered. The email of intent must include:

1. The name of the solicitation,
2. The name of the Principal Investigator, and any co-PI's,
3. A 2-3 sentence description of the proposed project.

Should the number of interested applicants exceed the number allowed by the funder, an internal selection process will be conducted by the Office of the Vice Provost for Research, and candidates will be notified to submit internal application materials. All candidates will be notified of results. NB: Successful applications must include official notification from the Limited Submissions Team in order to submit. For more information, please see http://viceprovost.tufts.edu/resources/funding/limited-submissions/

PROGRAM PURPOSE:
• To support continuous full-time work on a humanities project to stimulate new research in the humanities and its publication.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS:
• This program provides small awards to individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both.
• It supports projects at any stage of development, but most especially early-stage research and late-stage writing in which small awards are most effective.
• Priority NEH areas of interest include 1) projects exploring the role of the Declaration of Independence and other foundational documents in the making of US history, as well as exploring the experiences of states and communities beyond the original colonies in joining the nation (in recognition of the 250th anniversary of US independence); 2) projects advancing civic education through American history and culture; 3) projects related to war and military service; and 4) projects that study, document, or create digital representations of lost or imperiled cultural heritage materials
• Projects may not (see link below for a full list): promote a particular political, religious, or ideological point of view; advocate a particular program of social or political action; support graduate student assistances; develop teaching methods or theories; or develop educational or technical impact assessments
• Expected output: Book; Article; Digital Material & Publications; Archaeological Report; Translation; Edition; Other Scholarly Resource.

ELIGIBILITY: No agency restrictions; please follow Tufts PI eligibility policies

AWARD INFORMATION: 2-month $6,000 award for an individual.
